Heavy Losses by Fire.

Destructive Blaze at Charleston. Special to the Star.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Oct. 20.--Last evening during the Republican jubilation a fire broke out in Dandridge's restaurant on Capital street, and consumed that and the buildings to Virginia street.

The Hale House livery stables, Gates' photographic establishment, the Kanawha Marble Works and seven stores were burned. The loss on buildings and stock will reach fully $30,000, on which there is no insurance worth mentioning.

The buildings have been considered very dangerous risks, and most of the companies have lately refused to renew the policies on them. R. R. Skiles is the principal loser on the buildings. He has ascertained, however, that the fire is thought to have originated from sparks of the bonfires on the street.

STABLES AND HORSES BURNED. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 20.--One of the stables at Narragansett park, four miles from here, where the fall races are now in progress, was burned last night with two horses. A valuable English running horse was got out, but little injured.

FLOUR MILLS. ANTIWERP, O., Oct. 20.--The four mills at this place were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss $8,000; no insurance. Origin of the fire is unknown.

ANOTHER SAD COAL OIL CASE. OIL CITY, PA., Oct. 20.--A fire occurred yesterday afternoon in a small tenement house in the northern suburbs of this city, occupied by a family named Gliny. The mother of the unfortunate family had left her three children alone, who, during her absence, thought to kindle the fire by the use of kerosene.

The eldest child, a boy, applied the flammable fluid, which spontaneously ignited, setting fire to his garments. He at once ran from the house, but before the flames could be quenched, he was burned so that death will be the probable result.

The elder sister, seven years old, luckily escaped from the house unharmed; but the youngest child, a girl between three and four years old, was not so fortunate. Unconscious of her agonizing position she fled to a closet and closed the door. The flames immediately enveloped the entire structure, leaving the frightened children to the mercy of the fire. When the entire building was consumed the body of the child was found a shapeless mass. The family are now without a home, and in a destitute condition. Loss on property small.

IN PERU. HAVRE, Oct. 20.--A telegram has been received here from Valparaiso announcing that a terrible fire has taken place at Iquique, Peru. Three-fourths of the town is said to have been destroyed.

IN POLAND. Two hundred dwellings, a synagogue and five schools in Wisly, Russian Poland, have been burned. Some persons perished, and 3,000 are homeless.

New York.

The Yale College Row--Sugar Merchants--Criminal Notes--Pacific Mail--The President's Cabinet Appointment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.--A New Haven special says: During the Odd-fellows' parade yesterday several Yale College students assaulted a man who was following the procession, and dragged him from his cart. The Odd-fellows drew swords and came to his rescue. Several students were wounded by the swords, and one or two Odd-fellows were hurt by stones thrown by the students.

A special meeting of wholesale sugar merchants and importers was held yesterday, when the question affecting old and new rates of drawback and export duty on sugar was discussed. It appeared to be the unanimous opinion that the Government ought at once to define rates of the drawback.

Timothy Mahoney, of Staten Island, was shot and dangerously wounded today by an unknown man, who escaped. Both men were courting the same young lady, and quarreled with the result.

Timothy Mahoney, aged twenty, a domestic, employed at 113 Raymond street, Brooklyn, committed suicide last night by taking strychnine. She had been seduced under a promise of marriage, and had lately shown symptoms of insanity.

Mr. Scott, Vice President of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, has just received a telegram announcing the final sale of their line of steamships running on the inland seas of Japan. The Directors at once met and confirmed the sale. This line consists of four wooden side-wheel steamers, the Nevada, Golden Age, Negomam and Costa Rica. These boats were run last year in opposition to a Japanese line, at a loss of nearly $200,000.

The steamers were purchased by the Mitsui Bussan Company, which is under the patronage of the Japanese Government, enjoying a subsidy from the same.

This company will run their steamers in connection with the Pacific Mail-line from San Francisco to Japan, and operate on equitable terms. The price realized by the Pacific Mail Company for these steamers, is 700,000 Mexican silver dollars, which will realize in our currency about $300,000, an amount sufficient to pay off all debts of the Pacific Mail, with the exception of the Panama E. K. loan of $50,000, and place the company in a better financial condition than for years past.

It is announced that Butterick & Co., the fashion-plate dealers, have failed for $200,000.

The morning papers, editorially referring to the appointment of Senator Chandler as Secretary of the Interior, all express dissatisfaction with the President's selection.

The Herald says that until this strange selection Grant's later Cabinet appointments have been respectable, the officers selected being a great improvement on their predecessors. The President has offered the position to other gentlemen who had declined it. The fact that Grant has been unable to prevail on a better man to accept this important place is a striking proof that the administration has sunk so low that it no longer thought to be an honor to participate in its councils.

An acceptance of the office would imply acceptance of the President's public endorsement of Delano's course. And no wonder, therefore, that after repeated offers no man of higher moral status than Chandler could be induced to accept.

The Tribune says if the President had searched the United States from coast to coast, he could not have found a man more likely to perpetuate abuses of Delano's administration and to add others of his own. He is most unfit for the management of a large administration bureau, and the nomination is probably the worst Grant has yet made.

The Tribune says Chandler's presence in the Cabinet will add to the disgust which people feel for Grantism, and thus contribute to its final overthrow.

The Witness says Grant has gone far, in appointing Chandler, to annul the obligations of country to him for his excellent previous appointments of Waite, Bristol and Jewell. Except in point of ability, Chandler is just about the opposite in every respect to what the occupant of such an important position should be.

Another New Planet. ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 20.--Prof. James Q. Watson, of the Michigan University, discovered a new planet last night. Its right ascension is fifteen minutes and sixteen seconds; its declination seven minutes and three seconds north. It shines like a star of the tenth magnitude and is moving west and south.

Rates and News from Chicago. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.--It is supposed here that a railroad war will ensue as soon as the new Atlantic and Chicago line is inaugurated, since the managers propose a liberal policy, with which the other lines must necessarily compete.

Pullman cars will be entirely withdrawn from the Michigan Central and Great Western roads, an agreement having been made to that effect yesterday.

The stone cutters resumed work on the new Custom-house this morning. The Republican County Convention was held yesterday and Louis C. Huck nominated for Treasurer. He is a prominent German and was nominated for the purpose of defeating Hoising. The contest will be very warm, and no stone left unturned by either party. The other Republican nominees are very strong and unobjectionable men.
